

Recognise and Respond Appropriately to Domestic and Family Violence Skill Set

State ID: EAC05

About this course

Be better informed about Domestic and Family Violence and help raise awareness of the issues involved

Expand your knowledge and skills to be able to help build community awareness about domestic and family violence.

If you are working or volunteering in a community service context and wish to develop your skills to work effectively in the promotion of community awareness of domestic and family issues, this skill set will give you the knowledge you need. You'll also be able to identify gaps in existing information, services and resources to support prevention of domestic and family violence.

It is recommended that students be over 18 or have experience in the Community Service industry.

Gain these skills

- Develop knowledge about family violence and relevant legislation and policy framework
- Build knowledge of available resources and community services and identify gaps in services and programs
- Develop a program to build community awareness about domestic and family violence

Fees and charges

Local full time students

Course fees are made up of two components, tuition fees and resource fees.

Tuition fees are determined by multiplying the course fee rate by the nominal hours, which is the number of hours in which an average student could be expected to complete each unit. They are not the hours of training or instruction.

Resource fees are charges for material that are essential to a course or unit, and are purchased by NMT to be used by students during the course.

Fees may vary depending on the units you are enrolled in so an approximate amount has been shown. You will be given the exact amount of your fees at enrolment. Part time student fees will vary depending on the number of units you are enrolled in.

Please note, you may also need to buy textbooks or equipment for your course.

International Students

Check TAFE International WA to confirm this course is available to international students. You will pay your tuition fees to TIWA.

Please note, fees are subject to change.
