

Community Services Crisis Support Skill Set

State ID: EAC07

About this course

Gain the skills and training to respond to the immediate needs of clients in crisis

This skills set will prepare you to respond to crises in any community services setting and is suitable for anyone working in the community through paid employment or volunteering. You will learn in a safe environment through scenario-based simulations that uses actors to replicate critical situations.

Successful completion of this course may open up opportunities to work directly with clients or help with career progression. It will give you two units towards a variety of Community Services qualifications.

Gain these skills

- Develop clear suicide safety plan to help manage suicide risk
- Use self-care when involved in crisis or suicide prevention
- Understand legal and ethical requirements linked to crisis intervention
- Build relationships with clients seeking help

Important information

Delivery

This course is delivered through a mix of online learning, and on campus sessions that include role-play in a simulated workplace setting.

You will need to undertake a work placement as part of this course.

Timetable

Starts 17 October and classes run Saturday 9.00am to 1.00pm for 8 weeks.

Fees and charges

Local full time students

Course fees are made up of two components, tuition fees and resource fees.

Tuition fees are determined by multiplying the course fee rate by the nominal hours, which is the number of hours in which an average student could be expected to complete each unit. They are not the hours of training or instruction.

Resource fees are charges for material that are essential to a course or unit, and are purchased by NMT to be used by students during the course.

Fees may vary depending on the units you are enrolled in so an approximate amount has been shown. You will be given the exact amount of your fees at enrolment. Part time student fees will vary depending on the number of units you are enrolled in.
